

Stroke Care

Percentage of patients...	Cooper	U.S. Average	NJ Average
Who arrive at the hospital within two hours of when symptoms began, and for whom intravenous clot-busting drugs (tPA) were initiated within 3 hours of time symptoms started. The sooner clot-busting drugs are delivered, the better your chances for recovery. The clot-busting drug known as tPA is most effective, but must be delivered within three hours of when symptoms began.	Not available, low case volume	88%	91%
Key Green = Our results meet or exceed the U.S. average.
Cooper data from 10/1/15 to 9/30/16. U.S. and NJ data from hospitalcompare.hhs.gov, 10/1/2015 to 9/30/16 (most current data available).			